Ocean Dream

Tropical fish
Is lost in the ocean
He does not know where he is Because the ocean deeply hide him

Sweets

Sweetie Sweetie

When I have one scoop of tea spoon

Sweet is in a whole mouth

Better taste of sweet

Never stop my mouth and hands

Feeling My Heart

I saw you in my dream
White stars just twinkle
Above my head
All of the night stars fall down
Like a shower
In my heart

Good-Bye 2008

When I order a Christmas cake,
I feel the end of the year is coming
December is a busy month of the year
But the loneliness is beside

When I receive the time of New Year

The end of the year
I thank all of the things happened to me
When I said good-bye to my friends,
When I felt happiness
All I want to say is thank you all

My Treasure

When I lost my way,
Always remember the school days.
The feelings of happiness, excitement and pleasure
All the things happened to me is my treasure

A Tree

I am a tree Standing alone,
on the hill
The grass is so green
The wind is so soft feeling warm is my happiness

Angels

I am not a human

but I exist

You can find me

When you believe me

I Dreamed About...

At blue night, I dreamed
Far, in the desert country,
Under the burning sun,
I was waiting for something

Ticket For Dream

I was in bed earlier
My mind was clear
Just I wanted to sleep
Closing my eyes,
Nothing gives me dream land's ticket
Leaving the living of the earth,
Being in the wonderland,
it makes me feel happy

Dear Readers;

Thank you for reading my first miniature book. It took me time to select and edit for this book. I hope that you will enjoy reading and imagining the world in the poems. I will be very glad if you send me any messages for this book or any others.

Again, thank you so much for reading.

I really hope that you will see me again sometime sooner.

Yours,
takako
